

Khalifa Uthman bin Affan - 'Aamir bin Abdullah Tamimi

'Aamir b Abdullah in Basra'

'Aamir b Abdullah Tamimi was an eminent Muslim. He settled at Basra. He was intensely religious, and would pray the whole night. Being too much absorbed in religious devotions, he was cut off from the world around him. He became critical of the irreligious ways of life of the people around him, and the people felt unhappy at his biting criticism. The Governor of Basra complained against him to Uthman, and Uthman directed that 'Aamir b Abdullah be sent to Syria.

View Page

Source : Alim.org-Uthman History