Uthman as the Holy Prophet's son-in-law

At Tabarani records on the authority of Asma b Malik that when Umm Kulsum died, the Holy Prophet advised the Muslims: "Give your daughters in marriage to Uthman . If I had a third daughter I would assuredly give her in marriage to him, and I have never wedded any to him save under inspiration".

Ibn Asakir records on the authority of Ali that the Holy Prophet said: "If I had forty daughters, I would wed them with Uthman one after the other until not one of them is left".
