

Khalifa Uthman bin Affan - Uthman Disertations

Unity and faith

Uthman said: When the Muslims are disunited they would falter in their faith, and would be bereft of their inherent strength O people, if I give you all the world, that would not suffice as the price for your faith. You will not be conscious of the reality of faith till love for God is held dearer than the passion to acquire wealth. The highest degree in faith is that you always regard yourself in the presence of God.
