

41.1

?â-M?m.

41.2

?This is? a revelation from the Most Compassionate, Most Merciful.

41.3

?It is? a Book whose verses are perfectly explained—a Quran in Arabic for people who know, delivering good news and warning. Yet most of them turn away, so they do not hear.

41.4

41.5

They say, “Our hearts are veiled against what you are calling us to, there is deafness in our ears, and there is a barrier between us and you. So do ?whatever you want? and so shall we!”

41.6

Say, ?O Prophet,? “I am only a man like you, ?but? it has been revealed to me that your God is only One God. So take the Straight Way towards Him, and seek His forgiveness. And woe to the polytheists—those who do not pay alms-tax and are in denial of the Hereafter.

41.7

41.8

?But? those who believe and do good will certainly have a never-ending reward.

41.9

Ask ?them, O Prophet?, “How can you disbelieve in the One Who created the earth in two Days? And how can you set up equals with Him? That is the Lord of all worlds.

41.10

He placed on the earth firm mountains, standing high, showered His blessings upon it, and ordained ?all? its means of sustenance—totaling four Days exactly¹ —for all who ask.

41.11

Then He turned towards the heaven when it was ?still like? smoke, saying to it and to the earth, ‘Submit, willingly or unwillingly.’ They both responded, ‘We submit willingly.’

41.12

So He formed the heaven into seven heavens in two Days, assigning to each its mandate. And We adorned the lowest heaven with ?stars like? lamps ?for beauty? and for protection. That is the design of the Almighty, All-Knowing.”¹

41.13

If they turn away, then say, ?O Prophet,? “I warn you of a ?mighty? blast, like the one that befell ’?d and Thamûd.”

41.14

The messengers had come to them from all angles, ?proclaiming,? “Worship none but Allah.” They responded, “Had our Lord willed, He could have easily sent down angels ?instead?. So we totally reject what you have been sent with.”

41.15

As for 'd, they acted arrogantly throughout the land with no right, boasting, "Who is spanerior to us in might?" Did they not see that Allah ?Himself?, Who created them, was far spanerior to them in might? Still they persisted in denying Our signs.

41.16

So We sent against them a furious wind,¹ for ?several? miserable days, to make them taste a humiliating punishment in this worldly life. But far more humiliating will be the punishment of the Hereafter. And they will not be helped.

41.17

As for Thamûd, We showed them guidance, but they preferred blindness over guidance. So the blast of a disgracing punishment overtook them for what they used to commit.

41.18

And We delivered those who were faithful and were mindful ?of Allah?.

41.19

?Consider? the Day ?when? the enemies of Allah will be gathered for the Fire, all driven in ranks.

41.20

When they reach it, their ears, eyes, and skin will testify against what they used to do.¹

41.21

They will ask their skin ?furiously?, "Why have you testified against us?" It will say, "We have been made to speak by Allah, Who causes all things to speak. He ?is the One Who? created you the first time, and to Him you were bound to return.

41.22

You did not ?bother to? hide yourselves from your ears, eyes, and skin to prevent them from testifying against you. Rather, you assumed that Allah did not know much of what you used to do.

41.23

It was that ?false? assumption you entertained about your Lord that has brought about your doom, so you have become losers."

41.24

Even if they endure patiently, the Fire will ?always? be their home. And if they ?beg to? appease ?their Lord?, they will never be allowed to.

41.25

We placed at their disposal ?evil? associates who made their past and future ?misdeeds? appealing to them.¹ ?So? the fate of earlier communities of jinn and humans has been justified against them ?as well?, ?for? they were truly losers.

41.26

The disbelievers advised ?one another?, "Do not listen to this Quran but drown it out so that you may prevail."

41.27

So We will certainly make the disbelievers taste a severe punishment, and We will surely repay them according to the worst of their deeds.

41.28

That is the reward of Allah's enemies: the Fire, which will be their eternal home—a fitting reward for their denial of Our revelations.

41.29

The disbelievers will then cry, "Our Lord! Show us those jinn and humans who led us astray: we will put them under our feet so that they will be among the lowest in Hell?"

41.30

Surely those who say, "Our Lord is Allah," and then remain steadfast, the angels descend upon them,¹ saying, "Do not fear, nor grieve. Rather, rejoice in the good news of Paradise, which you have been promised.

41.31

We are your spanporters in this worldly life and in the Hereafter. There you will have whatever your souls desire, and there you will have whatever you ask for:

41.32

an accommodation from the All-Forgiving, Most Merciful Lord?"

41.33

And whose words are better than someone who calls others to Allah, does good, and says, "I am truly one of those who submit?"¹

41.34

Good and evil cannot be equal. Respond to evil with what is best, then the one you are in a feud with will be like a close friend.

41.35

But this cannot be attained except by those who are patient and who are truly fortunate.

41.36

And if you are tempted by Satan, then seek refuge with Allah. Indeed, He alone is the All-Hearing, All-Knowing.

41.37

Among His signs are the day and the night, the sun and the moon. Do not prostrate to the sun or the moon, but prostrate to Allah, Who created them all, if you truly worship Him alone?

41.38

But if the pagans are too proud, then let them know that those angels nearest to your Lord glorify Him day and night, and never grow weary.

41.39

And among His signs is that you see the earth devoid of life, but as soon as We send down rain upon it, it begins to stir to life and swell. Indeed, the One Who revives it can easily revive the dead. He is certainly Most Capable of everything.

41.40

Indeed, those who abuse Our revelations¹ are not hidden from Us. Who is better: the one who will be cast into the Fire or the one who will be secure on Judgment Day? Do whatever you want. He is certainly All-

Seeing of what you do.

41.41

Indeed, those who deny the Reminder¹ after it has come to them are doomed, for it is truly a mighty Book.

41.42

It cannot be proven false from any angle. It is a revelation from the One Who is All-Wise, Praiseworthy.

41.43

O Prophet! Nothing is said to you by the deniers except what was already said to the messengers before you. Surely your Lord is the Lord of forgiveness and painful punishment.

41.44

Had We revealed it as a non-Arabic Quran, they would have certainly argued, "If only its verses were made clear in our language. What! A non-Arabic revelation for an Arab audience!" Say, O Prophet, "It is a guide and a healing to the believers. As for those who disbelieve, there is deafness in their ears and blindness to it in their hearts. It is as if they are being called from a faraway place."¹

41.45

Indeed, We had given Moses the Scripture, but differences arose regarding it. Had it not been for a prior decree from your Lord,¹ their differences would have been settled at once. They are truly in alarming doubt about it.

41.46

Whoever does good, it is to their own benefit. And whoever does evil, it is to their own loss. Your Lord is never unjust to His servants.

41.47

With Him alone is the knowledge of the Hour. No fruit comes out of its husk, nor does a female conceive or deliver without His knowledge. And consider the Day He will call to them, "Where are My so-called associate-gods?" They will cry, "We declare before you that none of us testifies to that any longer."

41.48

Whatever idols they used to invoke besides Allah will fail them. And they will realize that they will have no escape.

41.49

One never tires of praying for good. And if touched with evil, they become desperate and hopeless.

41.50

And if We let them taste a mercy from Us after being touched with adversity, they will certainly say, "This is what I deserve. I do not think the Hour will ever come. And if in fact I am returned to my Lord, the finest reward with Him will definitely be mine." But We will surely inform the disbelievers of what they used to do. And We will certainly make them taste a harsh torment.

41.51

When We show favour to someone, they turn away, acting arrogantly. And when touched with evil, they make endless prayers ?for good?.

41.52

Ask them, O Prophet, "Imagine if this Quran is truly from Allah and you deny it: who can be more astray than those who have gone too far in opposition to the truth?"

41.53

We will show them Our signs in the universe and within themselves until it becomes clear to them that this Quran is the truth. Is it not enough that your Lord is a Witness over all things?

41.54

They are truly in doubt of the meeting with their Lord! But He is indeed Fully Aware of everything.
